Hepatitis or Liver Complaint, DISPERS A ALD SICK MEAD ON Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the r bs, increases on pres sure, sometimes the pain is in the left the patient is rarely able to lie on the left sid sometimes the pain is telt under the shoulder blade, and it tre juently ex ends to the top of the sl oulder and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is aff cted with loss of appe tite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax, the head is troubled with sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of mem-ory accomparied with a painful sen sation of having left undone some thing which ought to have been done A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning and he complains of a prickly sensa-tion of the skin, his spirits are low, and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, vet he can scarcely summon up forntude enough to try it In fact, he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body.

AGUE AND FEVER DR C McLine's Liver Pills, in CASES OF ACLE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine are productive of the most happy resu'ts.
